Description

I deal with internationalization for SMEs and I am responsible for B2B relationships for some companies participating in Expo Milan 2015. My main area of interest is the food industry, especially products such as pasta, flour, sugar, canned goods, baked goods, bread substitutes, frozen pastry. Some companies deal with equipment and furnishings for kitchens. The companies above are already active in exporting their goods and are interested in accessing new markets. During the past decades they have been able to combine tradition and innovation by introducing new production techniques. I would like to get in touch with buyers, importers, caterers who appreciate Italian products. We also offer the possibility of organizing tastings of the products in an area within the Expo, during your stay in Milan.

I am also involved in healthcare industry and medical tourism sector. I have an in depth knowledge of healthcare industry, international insurance companies, healthcare marketing and also collaborate with suppliers of medical devices.
